LR99 February 28, 1974

PRESIDENT: You are voting to suspend the rules and read tomorrow's final reading bills today. Motion is to suspend the rules, take up tomorrow's final reading today. That motion still requires 30 votes and your cooperation because we really had a short quorum here. Thank you. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 31 ayes, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Very good. The rules are suspended. We will take up final reading and the Chair would once again like to entreaty you to please the floor and get in your seats so we can expedite final reading here.

CLERK: Mr. President. Read committee reports. LR99 indefinitely postponed. LB706 indefinitely postponed. LB1029 advanced to General File as amended.

PRESIDENT: While the Legislature was in session and capable of transacting business, I have signed LB17A, LB77, LB77A, 600, 730, 640, 684, 228, 228A, 697, for now. Additionally, while the Legislature was in session, I have signed LB1034, 513, 604, 612, 613, 621, 636, 645, 652, 662, 674, 675, 712, 716, 732, 756, 765, 766, 767, 804, 827, 912 and in conclusion LB944. Once again, we are attempting to clear the floor and get senators in their seats so we can begin tomorrow's final reading for today which would begin with LB646. Well, in the interest of expediting final reading, we'll forgive the two senators who are in phone booths and we'll go ahead with the Final Reading. Assistant Clerk will read the Final Reading on LB646, final reading. LB646.

CLERK: Read LB646.

(End Belt #1)

(Begin Belt #2)

CLERK: Continue reading LB646.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: I have just been alerted we're reading LB646. I have an amendment to LB646 and I would like to have it passed over. Unless someone has an objection to it.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to passing over the Final Reading of LB646 at this time.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I'll tell you what the amendment is, it allows the counties up to March 15 to adjust salaries. The present law is 60 days before the Primary, that's what it does.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to passing over the reading of LB646?

SENATOR CARPENTER: We would take it up the next time we meet.

PRESIDENT: Any objections? None, so ordered then, we'll bypass. LB646. Proceed then to the Final Reading of LB771.

CLERK: Read LB771.
